

[about me]

Stanford senior studying HCI

eager to explore new things and go to new places

learns  fast.

studied abroad in Florence

speaks English (native),
Chinese (intermediate), and Italian (intermediate)

[skill set]

HTML

CSS

User Experience

Web Design

Needfinding

Visual Design

Rapid Prototyping

JS

education

Stanford University (2012 - 2016)

B.S. Computer Science (HCI)

GPA: 3.71

Relevant Courses:

Embodied Interfaces

HCI Design Studio

Designing Calm

Visual Thinking

projects

Online Portfolio [njulie.github.io/portfolio]

Oct 2015

Designed and implemented my online portfolio website.

Created moodboards, wireframes, and mockups.

Personal Website [njulie.github.io/old-site]

Jul 2015 - Aug 2015

Designed and implemented a website to showcase technical skills and design skills.

Redesign the Commute Experience

May 2015 - Jun 2015

Surveyed 200+ commuters in one week to collect general data on target users.

Conducted 7 user interviews as part of needfinding.

Redesigned the drive experience with autonomous cars.

Urban Styles Website [urbanstyles.stanford.edu]

Apr 2015 - Aug 2015

Designed and implemented Stanford's contemporary dance group's website.

Prototyped animations with Keynote, and created mockups and moodboards.

Dv8 Website [njulie.github.io/dv8-website]

Jul 2014 - Sept 2014

Redesigned and implemented Stanford's hip-hop dance group's website.

work experience

Software Engineering Intern @ Intuit

Jun 2015 - Sept 2015

Analyzed 50+ screen scraping scripts for efficiency and method.

Built HTTPClients, gained experience working with REST endpoints and APIs

Art Gallery Assistant @ Stanford Thomas Welton Art Gallery

Oct 2013 - Jun 2015

Held open houses and receptions for the student art exhibit on campus.

jni221@stanford.edu | 201 919 1229

562 Mayfield Ave

Stanford, CA 94305